

YOU ARE INVITED

The new plant of the Kline Motor Car Corporation, on the Boulevard, near the State Fair Grounds grandstand, is nearing completion.

Having had so many kindly expressions as to its beauty and utility, the Company invites you to go out and see it. It is one of the factors that is entering into the industrial life of this section, and as the management of the Company has an abiding faith in this great city, it believes you will feel a pride in the fact that Richmond is to have a plant of this character, where the finest expression of mechanical skill is to be given.

The Kline Car is just as good a car as can be built.

Everything that enters into it is as good as money and judgment can make it.

Each car is a personal thing with our organization.

The output of this factory will be built upon the principle of the very closest inspection of every component part entering into the car.

The car has taken the front rank of popularity in this market already, and will outsell any other make in this community.

You can see several different models at Foster Motor Car Co., West Broad Street, Distributors.

AUTHORIZES ISSUE OF $250,000

Newport News to Expend Large Sum in Harbor Development.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Newport News, Va., July 25.—By a vote of 110 to 5 this city today authorized a bond issue of $250,000 with which to construct a small boat harbor and municipal pier at Newport News Point, two miles from the city, and to acquire 100 acres of land for harbor site, and 1000 feet of waterfront property on Lynnhaven Beach. The harbor will be started with three months, and will be finished with all possible dispatch. It is estimated that the harbor will be finished in 1913, and will be a year in additional water traffic to the city. Five new factories already have been secured for the harbor, and others are in sight. The harbor will combine water and rail transportation.

ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED.

SAMUEL GOMPERS SCORES COURT ACT

In Bitter Editorial Head of Labor People Denounces Contempt Sentence.

JUSTICE WRIGHT ASSAILED

He Declares Verdict Was Reached Month Before It Was Handed Down.

Washington, July 25.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a lengthy signed editorial in the current issue of the American Federationist, discusses the recently announced decision of Justice Daniel Thew Wright imposing prison sentences of varying length on Gompers, Secretary Morrison and John Mitchell.

In his article President Gompers goes into all the ramifications of the internationally celebrated prosecutions of the labor leaders for alleged contempt of court, and reiterates his oft-expressed belief that the prosecution was from the start an infringement of the constitutionally guaranteed rights of free speech and a free press.

In this connection President Gompers cites Justice Wright's words in reply to the defendant's contention that the supreme law of the land guarantees freedom of press and speech, namely, that the Constitution merely forbids Congress to pass laws infringing on the freedom of press and speech, but does not in any way affect the courts.

Under this interpretation of the constitutional guarantees, says President Gompers, the way is made clear for courts to impose any restrictions they may see fit upon publications of any kind as well as upon public utterances.

Discusses All Phases.

President Gompers discusses the action of the court from the issuance of the now famous injunction which forbade the publication in the official organ of the American Federation of Labor of the name of the Buckle Shoe and Range Company in the federation's so-called unfair list, to the imposing of sentence on the labor leaders, whom the court alleged were in contempt because the prohibited publication continued after the issuance of the injunction. President Gompers says:

"Judge Wright's opinion is a legal document fit to be carefully laid aside with those already moldering in the archives of law libraries, and which may in the distant future as is now the case with similar ancient opinions and decisions, be revived and held up as conspicuous instances of ancient sophistry affecting the divine right of kings who are chancellors in their relation to the slave of serf."

"The opinion," says President Gompers, "is a document that reflects with utmost clearness the kindly viewpoint, the mental bias and the mental processes that stand out so conspicuously different from the conceptions of the rights of citizenship among our people."

"It sounds," says President Gompers, "like an echo from the kindly chancellors' opinions of the Stuart judges of the seventeenth century. Its pseudo-individualistic political theory reverberates like a voice from the tomb of the 'vested interests' philosophers."

Cites Declaration.

Citing Justice Wright's declaration that the injunction was not intended to abridge the freedom of speech or press, President Gompers quotes the frequent interpellation in the court's opinion of paragraphs of the American Federationist, from reports of the federation's executive council and from statements of its officers as evidence in support of his contention that Justice Wright carefully read every article published in the federation's labor leaders in his effort to sustain the charge of contempt.

President Gompers quotes the words of former Federal Judge Henry C. Caldwell, who said that the "jury and injunction are terms that cancel each other. In proportion as the injunction is expanded, the right of jury trial is restricted. Armed with this powerful writ which has no definite boundary or limitation, and which may be used at discretion, the power of the Federal chancellor may fairly be characterized as imperial." He follows this quotation with the words of Judge James B. McGuire, in commenting upon the opinion of Justice Wright:

"The decision of Judge Wright, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, in the Gompers contempt case is the most far-reaching step yet taken to undermine and destroy the freedom of speech and of the press guaranteed by the Federal Constitution."

"Primarily it is intended to curb the growing power of organized labor, for if not to destroy the labor movement, but it cannot be limited to that purpose. If finally upheld, it must ultimately lead to the general censorship of speech and the press."

Otherwise, determined by injunction or subpoena, determining the subject matter may or may not be discussed, or what may or may not be said in a labor paper, may what it not in like manner abridge the freedom of all our other publications?"

"The course of the article President Gompers refers to his statement, issued at the time sentence was passed upon himself and Morrison, that information had reached him to the effect that Justice Wright's decision had been made known to the public."

It was announced, but was withheld until after the Republican National Convention at Chicago. He quotes Justice Wright's denial of the statement, and reaffirms the fact that such information actually did reach him, and that the accused officials were aware of the nature of the opinion more than a month before it was announced by Justice Wright from the bench.

REUSES TO APOLOGIZE

Secret Service Man Barred From Court For Affront to Judge.

New Orleans, July 25.—Because of the commissioner's refusal to permit the latter this afternoon refused to permit Looby to testify in his court, and adjourned indefinitely a hearing in a counterfeit case.

The breach between the two officials, which threatens to obstruct temporarily the administration of justice, is the result of Looby's failure several days ago to remove his hat when he appeared before the commissioner. Judge Brown at that time gave the secret service man a "call down," and the latter retorted that the commissioner displayed a lack of dignity by discarding his coat while on the bench.

Later Looby stated openly that he did not remove his hat on grounds that Judge Brown's court because he thought a poker game was in progress.

Come to Our Opening Day Party Today

We ask the smokers of Richmond to come to our Opening Day party at our store at 836 East Main St., in celebration of our coming to this city.

It will be a celebration, for we are happy in the consummation of our plans to be so advantageously situated, so handsomely equipped and above all, to be a part of such a lively community.

To get attention quickly we follow our usual method of making our store opening a celebration.

Right off the reel we make it worth the while of the smoker to come in and look us over.

We want every one to have something as a memento of the occasion. We cannot say "Come in and help yourselves"—that would not be a "party"—it would be "riot," so we put it this way—

TEN GOOD NUMBERS

This incensed the commissioner, and he forthwith issued the edict that Looby could not testify in his court until he had apologized. The charge against Joseph Warner, which the commissioner refused to hear today, will be taken direct to the grand jury by the district attorney.

Chapel Hill repeated its victory of yesterday in the interstate hand-reel race, taking that event in 23.4 seconds, and finishing third in the interstate grand-reel contest with 33.25. The Chapel Hill department was the most consistent winner in the hand-reel events. Newbern showed up strongest in the more spectacular and richer horse-horse wagon races Newbern won yesterday, while the Fourth Ward, Newbern company, split second, third and fourth money with two Raleigh teams. While Riverside, Newbern, took fifth money in the interstate horse-horse contests today, the prize won by Newbern totaled 125. Chapel Hill's winning aggregated 220 High Point, while not showing as consistent as Newbern, earned the same amount in money.

Australian Senate Also Acts in Case of Panama Waterway.

Melbourne, Australia, July 25.—The Senate of the Commonwealth of Australia today unanimously passed the resolution adopted by the House of Representatives July 8 in reference to the Panama Canal. Its terms are as follows:

"In the opinion of this house, any system providing for a bonus or a rebate of canal dues to American shipping using the Panama Canal would be detrimental to the interests of Australia."

TEAMS TIE IN RACE.

Goldsboro and Sumter Divide Honors at Firemen's Tournament.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Fayetteville, N. C., July 25.—Goldsboro and Sumter divided honors and the two teams won the interstate horse-horse wagon race, the big event of the firemen's tournament this afternoon.

Each team ran the distance and threw water in 23 seconds flat. Kingston No. 2 team ran next and secured third prize, with 32.5 seconds. Morehead City, one-fifth of a second slower, took fourth, and the Riverside company of Newbern, fifth money. The intense rivalry engendered by the interstate event caused such great anxiety that four "blow-outs" resulted. The Atlantic Newbern, Fayetteville, Capital City, Raleigh and Newbern No. 1 teams were the victims of the over-excitement.

The Raleigh Rescue crew missed a coupling through lack of slack and received no score. There were sixteen teams in this event, seven of whom were tied for various positions.
